2a. Academic profile

In section 1 – General Academic Profile: Write a narrative highlighting your academic achievements that are most relevant to your field, other scientific fields, society and/or the research idea. Provide context and evidence of how the elements you choose to include show your academic qualities.

In section 2 – Leadership and mentorship: Highlight your approach to leadership and mentorship. Describe how you contributed to the development of individuals. You can add information on expertise that you provided that contributed to the success of your team or team members, including project management, collaborative contributions, and team support. Section 2 can also be used to describe the establishment of collaborations, disciplinary and interdisciplinary, institutional, national and international. It can be used to detail where you exerted strategic leadership, how you shaped the direction of a team, organisation, company or institution.

2b. Key output

Per key output item (max 10) provide the reference to the output, add a direct link (preferably a DOI), select the output type and choose at least one indicator that best demonstrates the quality of the output. Under 'motivation' explain the selection of each of the output items and indicators. You may choose to combine the explanation for multiple key output items. Describe your contribution to the output, especially in case of multi-author output. Mark output that is available in open access by ticking the checkbox behind "Open Access".

When selecting quality indicators you may only use ones that meet the Guidelines for the use of quality indicators in the General Notes. The indicator drop-down menus contain a list of approved indicators.
